IB English Teacher

Full-time, Fixed Term Contract

Ashbury College is a leading not-for-profit independent day and boarding school for students in Grades 4 to 12 located in Canada's capital and the traditional, unceded territory of the Anishinàbe Algonquin Nation. We serve a diverse community of over 60 nationalities from around the National Capital Region, the International diplomatic community, and international and domestic boarding students.

Our mission is to inspire students in a dynamic learning environment as intellectually curious, compassionate, and responsible global citizens. Our strategic direction is centered on the highest standards in teaching and learning; whole student development; access and inclusion in our pluralistic community; community engagement; and resource stewardship for long termsustainability. We achieve these through a community of employees, volunteers, and students who cultivate and celebrate diversity and inclusion.

We are seeking a full-time, Senior School International Baccalaureate English teacher for a fixed term contract.

Reporting to the Department Head of English, you will be responsible for the delivery of an exceptional classroom experience to our students.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Teach full time (5 classes), including IB and Ontario Curriculum English
- Provide on-call teaching as required
- Actively participate in Department meetings, faculty teaching and learning opportunities, and whole school activities.

As the successful candidate, you have a history of school community involvement, bringing enthusiasm and energy to the classroom, thriving in a busy learning community, working collaboratively with colleagues, and leading co-curricular activities. Your teaching practice includes current learning theories, creative use of technology, and imaginative course design and delivery.

Your education, experience and qualifications include:

- Ontario Teacher Certification in Senior Level English, or equivalent certification 2
- B.A or M.A in English

- Experience teaching Ontario Curriculum English, Grades 9 – 12, and IB English, Grades 11 & 12
- Evidence of teaching enhanced by technology.
- A demonstrated commitment to enriching school life for students including promoting pluralism and enhancing student belonging
- Experience leading co-curricular activities in the areas of creativity, activity (including athletics), and service
- Member in good standing of the Ontario College of Teachers
- Experience teaching International Baccalaureate English Language and Literature and/or Literature is an asset
- International experience and/or fluency in multiple languages is an asset.

Ashbury College provides a competitive compensation and benefits package, including participation in the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan.

This appointment is effective starting October 27, 2025 for a period of approximately one month with the possibility of extension. We encourage all qualified candidates to submit their applications at their earliest convenience. Please note that the posting will be removed once the position is successfully filled.

At Ashbury College, we develop students as responsible global citizens. We do this through a community of employees, volunteers, and students who cultivate and celebrate diversity and inclusion. We strongly encourage applications from all qualified individuals who are members of groups with historical and/or current barriers to equity. This supports our mission, makes our community stronger, and adds to our school culture.

Should you have any questions about this position, please email hr@ashbury.ca

If we contact you about an employment opportunity and you require an accommodation, we'll work with you to meet your needs.

Supporting Young Minds:

Signs of Depression and How to Help

Emotional Signs

- Persistent sadness, irritability, or frequent mood swings
- Loss of interest in activities they used to enjoy
- Frequent feelings of hopelessness or worthlessness

Behavioral Signs:

- Withdrawal from friends, family, or school
- Changes in sleep (too much or too little)
- Changes in appetite or weight
- Decline in academic performance
- Increased risk-taking or self-harm behaviors

Physical Signs:

- Fatigue or low energy
- Headaches, stomachaches, or other unexplained aches
- Restlessness or difficulty concentrating

How to talk about it

Start the conversation gently – Use observations, e.g., “I’ve noticed you seem sad lately. Do you want to share how you’re feeling?”

Listen actively – Give them your full attention without interrupting or judging.

Validate their feelings – Let them know it’s okay to feel this way: “It’s normal to feel upset sometimes, and I’m here for you.”

Use simple, age-appropriate language – Avoid clinical terms with younger children; keep explanations relatable.

Encourage sharing, don’t pressure – Allow them to open up at their own pace.

Offer reassurance and support – Remind them they are not alone and help is available.

What adults can do to help:

Parents / Guardians:

- Maintain routine and stability at home
- Encourage healthy habits: sleep, nutrition, physical activity
- Seek professional support (pediatrician, counselor, mental health worker)

Teachers / School Staff:

- Notice changes in behavior or performance
- Provide a safe, supportive classroom environment
- Connect families to school counselors or support programs

Community Workers / Support Staff:

- Listen and validate feelings without judgment
- Offer resources and referrals to mental health services
- Encourage participation in community activities that foster connection

IT'S HALLOWEEN!

HERE IS A FRIENDLY REMINDER OF SAFETY TIPS FOR CHILDREN, PARENTS AND DRIVERS

Safety Tips for Children:

- Trick-or-treat with friends or with an adult;
- Walk, don't run from house to house;
- Do not enter the house, always remain outside;
- Never get in a car with a stranger;
- Do not eat candy until examined by an adult;
- Never run across the street and look both ways before crossing;
- Carry a flashlight or wear something bright and reflective;
- Be polite, pushing or shoving other children;
- Stay within the route approved by your parents and return home on time.

Safety Tips for Parents:

- Accompany younger children while trick-or-treating;
- Inspect all candy;
- Make sure costumes fit properly and are short enough to prevent tripping;
- Choose costumes that are fire resistant and bright. Add reflective tape;
- Use face paint or make-up. If wearing a mask, make sure the eyeholes are large enough so the child's view is not obstructed;
- Keep pumpkins and candles away from curtains or other objects that can catch fire;
- Determine a Halloween route and curfew with your children;
- Carefully review safety rules with your children before trick-or-treating.

Safety Tips for Drivers:

- Use extreme caution when driving on Halloween;
- Enter and exit driveways with extra precaution;
- Report anything unusual you might see.

Have a Safe and Happy Halloween!

Fall Feast at Ricky's Cabin Report

It was a beautiful day to spend out on the land.

On Friday, October 10, 2025, Ricky Odjick and the Land, Water and Animals Advisory Committee hosted a Fall Feast. LWAAC would like to Thank Ricky Odjick for inviting us to his cabin for a fall feast and a Thank you to Gary Sumner for hosting us at Ricky's cabin.

Unfortunately, Ricky could not be present for the fall feast as he works for Sofeu and fights forest fires.

Community members were invited to join Ricky and LWAAC to celebrate the fall season and take part in Cultural Day with good food, lots of laughter, good company, fun language games with participation prizes to win, stories and such a beautiful view and site of the territory.

The focus of having cultural and fun activities out on the land:

- will show our presence and occupation of our territory.
- It is a way to expose community members to the vastness of our territory and become familiar with the land.
- It is also a terrific opportunity to pass on and share cultural and language teachings and knowledge.

We started with approximately ten participants but ended the day with about twenty people who quickly visited, stayed, or just popped in for a quick visit.

We look forward to seeing you at the next activity in our territory.

Here a few photos to share with you.
