PILOT PROJECT

ELDERS WELLNESS OUTREACH TEAM

CHECK-INS AND VISITS

WHAT IS A CHECK-IN AND VISIT BY THE ELDERS WELLNESS OUTREACH TEAM?

As part of a new KZHSS pilot project, our Elders Wellness Outreach Team provides friendly, supportive visits to seniors and Elders in our community. Whether it's sharing a conversation, enjoying some company, or simply checking in to make sure you're doing well, our team is here to help you feel safe, supported, and connected.

These visits will start in November and will help us identify when someone may need additional care or assistance, allowing our outreach team to communicate any concerns to KZHSS nursing staff.

Because our Elders should not feel forgotten, isolated, or without someone looking out for them.

WOULD YOU ENJOY A VISIT? LET U SKNOW!

TO REQUEST CHECK-INS OR FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT THE NURSING TEAM

Where Courage Flows:

A DAY TO HONOUR THE JOURNEY OF RECOVERY

Please join the Kitigan Zibi Health and Social Services NNADAP Program, Wanaki Centre and the Maniwaki Native Friendship Centre for A Day to Honour the Journey of Recovery – a community gathering of healing, strength, and unity.

SPEAKERS | FEAST | PHOTO BOOTH | SOBRIETY COUNTDOWN

This year's logo draws on the bear's teaching of courage, the North Star's guidance and a place of reflection, and the perseverance of flowing water. Together, they remind us that recovery is not without obstacles, but setbacks do not diminish our worth. These teachings call us to extend the same compassion we offer one another to ourselves. We, too, are worthy of the compassion we give so freely to others. In doing so, we strengthen our own healing and the circle of care that supports our families, communities, and future generations.
